

ERIKA THE HARPIST

"...SKILLFUL HARP PLAYING AND GRACEFUL PRESENCE...."

- LARISA MARTINEZ, SOPRANO & JOSHUA BELL, VIOLINIST

PRESS QUOTES & TESTIMONIALS

"Erika's skillful harp playing and graceful presence provided a wonderful welcome to our guests as they arrived for our wedding." - Larisa Martinez, Soprano & Joshua Bell, Violinist

"A truly amazing musician, very professional and adaptable. Erika is my go-to recommendation for events, private, public, small or large." - Jennifer Campbell, Event Coordinator

"I've had the pleasure of working with Erika Lieberman for over a decade and her talent and professionalism is only matched by her engaging warmth as a performer both on stage and off." - Daniel Green Wolf, Owner & Entertainment Director, Midsummer Fantasy Renaissance Faire, Ansonia, CT

"Erika's playing was one of the best highlights of my wedding! She took the time to get to know myself and my partner, what our vision for the wedding music was like, and then worked with us to choose the pieces she would play. She's a delight to work with, professional, friendly, and funny, and I'd recommend her without hesitation to anyone." - Kate Siegle, Rochester, NY

"Erika is an incredible musician, performer, composer and person. I have worked with her for over a decade. I cannot speak highly enough of her musicianship and ethical business practices." - Christy Carew, Film Composer, Los Angeles, CA

"I have known Erika Lieberman for many years. She's a great friend and an outstanding musician. I have performed with her on many occasions. Her passion for the Harp is apparent in every note she plays. I highly recommend her!" - Jay Michaels, Harp, Viola da Gamba and other plucked and bowed instruments, The Harper and the Minstrel

"Erika Lieberman's artistry and professionalism was of tremendous value to me when she served as Music Master and Harpist for ASC. Her playing was sublime and her keen vision for choosing repertoire for each performance was spot on. She hired, led and managed the other musicians in the ensemble with a skilled hand, and she is a delightful colleague and performer." - Colette Rice, former Producing Artistic Director, Actors Shakespeare Company, Hoboken, NJ

"Not just another harpist, Erika is an experienced professional who understands what it takes to capture her audience. She uses the right amount of engagement and entertainment, making her performances both enchanting and memorable." - Eric Tetreault, Co-Owner and Marketing Director, Connecticut Renaissance Faire and Robin Hood's Faire

"Erika has performed at The Connecticut Renaissance Faire many times over the years as both a solo artist and as part of her group, Sweet Amaryllis. She is always a delight to have part of our faire both on stage and off as she is always willing to go above and beyond to guarantee the success of the event. From her beautiful music to her charm and approachability...she is a top notch performer and can only add to any event in a positive way." - Brian Harvard, General Manager, Connecticut Renaissance Faire and Robin Hood's Faire

"Erika played harp during my wedding ceremony. I was very vague about what songs she should play, but she filled in the gaps in my knowledge with beautiful music. My parents and in-laws were very impressed with her as well. She was perfect." - Gayle Colcone, Waterbury, CT